

Easy 3 Ingredient Malai Kulfi Recipe

Author: Zoha Malik Total Time: 6 hours, 5 minutes (with chilling time)

Yield: 9 servings

A super easy, 5 minute Malai Kulfi made by blending together heavy cream, sweetened condensed milk and bread! No cooking required

INGREDIENTS

- 3 cups cold heavy whipping cream (720g)
- 1 can sweetened condensed milk (396g or 14oz)
- 3 King's Hawaiian Original Hawaiian Sweet Rolls (84g) - or use about 3 slices of any other white bread that is roughly the same weight in grams
- Optional: 1 tsp ground cardamom
- Optional garnish: Chopped pistachios and crushed freeze dried strawberries

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Add the cream, sweetened condensed milk, bread and cardamom powder (if using) to a blender. Blend for about 20-30 seconds in pulses, or until the bread has just incorporated. The mixture should still be liquidy. If you want a softer, more whipped texture similar to gelato, blend a bit longer in 5 second increments until the mixture becomes fluffy like whipped cream. Do not over blend. If adding any mix ins, fold in now
2. Line a 9x9" square pan with cling wrap. Pour the mixture in, and spread it out. Cover the pan with more cling wrap but don't let it touch the mixture
3. Freeze for ~6 hours, or until the kulfi is completely frozen
4. When ready to serve, carefully pull the kulfi slab out of the pan using the cling wrap. Use a sharp knife to cut into slices, and serve. Garnish with chopped pistachios and crushed freeze dried strawberries if you want to add some color. Enjoy!
